

Swords -- France -- Spies

Adventure -- Musketeers

Fun -- Danger -- Romance

Intrigue -- Your Friends

Are you worthy?

Could you fight with the musketeers?

Could you save France?

Is honor enough?

Could you do the right thing?

What if you die?

For Honor by Green Valley High School French Teacher Kat Jaske. It's a great read!

Fellow adventurers, Imagine yourself in France, in the time of the musketeers, when honor defines who you are. It is 1638. It is a time of intrigue and violence. France does not suspect the diabolical forces scheming to overthrow and split Europe between Richelieu and the king of England.

Nor does young Lady Laurel, a master fencer, suspect she might be plunged into the perilous position of saving France from a highly placed traitor when her father's work—as a talented and powerful spy for France—follows him home.

Meet the musketeers. Be swept up in this battle. Laugh with them; ride with them; fight for all you hold dear with them as they race against time to save France and their king, and to come to terms with the lady musketeer who insinuates herself into their tight-knit group. Delve into a new, modern look at the adventures of the musketeers, with characters who will become a part of your life. En Garde!

See www.forhonor.com ISBN 0-7414-2057-0