

Mon Dieu! Can this young lady write!
Five-star review of For Honor.
Foreword reviews.com

Time Travel – Sword Fighting – Musketeers – Lady Musketeer –

Superheroes Aliens

Desperate people sacrifice almost everything that is dear to them and travel over 800 years into the past to 17th-century France in hopes of saving their future.

Will the time travelers' extraordinary powers be enough to defeat the aliens who apparently followed them back in time, or can Laurel and the musketeers step up to save the human race?

Fascinating tales by Kat Jaske – Green Valley High School French teacher.

Step into a world of adventure unlike any you have ever known. Fight for your life.

ISBN 0-7414-5060-7
The trees, tall and majestic, stood as silent watchers. Seeing all that passed beneath their limbs as they had for countless centuries. Again, in this crisp, cool dawn they resumed their sentinel duty as a small party wove beneath their bows and came to stand in an equally small clearing.

Four men and one woman. All mute as the first rays of light played across the skin of their faces and the backs of their hands. See www.forhonor.com

